

Group

Group members:

Rules

- ☐ Create a presentation with slides, about 6-9 minutes in total.
- ☐ The group size is three (3) members.
- ☐ Your topic can be anything, but you must choose a side; show a point of view; and support your thoughts.
- ☐ The slides must be submitted by one member of the group by the due date (a dropbox will be created for each group).
- ☐ All groups must be ready to present in Week 13 class. All members are required to be present for the entire class.

The overall structure of the report also follows the structure of an argument:

- ☐ summary (assertion: direct assertions) —>
- ☐ context (reason: strong, logic and reasoning) —>
- ☐ details (evidence, supportive) —>
- ☐ conclusion (impact: importance) at the end of argument, explain why this argument is important, explain why you used it, gives meaning to the argument you presented.) - simple, short, important to the audience

Voice (volume, pace,...)	Dull	Average	Good	Exceptional
Confidence (present, authentic,...)	No confidence	Some confidence	Confident	Extremely confident
Body languages (Posture,...)	Poor	Average	Good	Excellent
Conviction-Knowledge of topic	Lacks knowledge	Somewhat knowledgeable	Knowledgeable	Well versed
Nervousness	Very nervous	Somewhat nervous	Comfortable	Born speaker
Facial expressions (eye contact, mouth, eyebrows,...)	Poor	Average	Good	Excellent
Language (flow, filler words, repetitive, repetition)	Poor	Average	Good	Excellent

Slides

- ☐ How many messages are you supposed to have per slide? one
- ☐ What can we use to steer focus? contrast and size
- ☐ What should we avoid using if speaking at the same time? sentences
- ☐ What kind of background should we have? dark
- ☐ How many objects per slide should we have? six

Comments